WEDNESDAY CLUB OF SANDY

Mrs. Brainard H. Warner, jr., of Chevy Chase entertained the Wednesday Club of Sandy Spring at luncheor yesterday. Mrs. William John Thomas presided at the meeting, which conened at 11:30 o'clock, and Miss Mary M. Thomas acted as secretary. Recess was taken at 12:30 for a buffet lunchcon, to which Mrs. Warner had invited Miss Dunlap, Miss Cook, Mrs. Ernest Kelly, Mrs. R. N. Wafle, Mrs. Orville CULTUS CLUB.

TWENTIETH CENTURY CLUB. time this season at the home of leader, Mrs. John Lowe, 2622 the leader, Mrs. John Lowe, 2622 Whodley place. The program will be of Grecian games, by Mrs. Crandall. The art section will meet Thursday at a rational with Mrs. Dayton Ward, the leader, at her residence, 1769 Columbia road. The subject for the year is the 'Venetian School of Painting,' and the program for the first meeting will be on the 'History of Venice,' by Mrs. John Lowe. Mrs. John Lowe.
The education section will hold its

The education section will hold its first meeting Friday at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Kern, 1912 G street. Miss Fung Sin Lin of Canton, China, who has taken degrees at Wellesley and Columbia, will speak of her future work as head of the woman's department of the Canton Christian College. All members of the club are cordially The French section will meet Wednes-a paper read by Mrs. McMechan. The day of clock with Mrs. Chase Palm cr. Hammond Court, Q and 30th streets. The program will consist of games and committee reported progress in basketry under the leadership of Mrs. The literature section will meet with the leader, Mrs. Henry Farquhar, Wedthele and the program will be "Goldwin Smith," conducted by Mrs. Farquhar.

The Washington College of Music has lessued invitations for a students recital to take place Friday evening at the place friday evening and the first event for place friday evening and the place friday evening and the place friday evening and the first event for place friday evening and the first event for place friday evening and place f mission; Mrs. Peaslee, mother's club; Mrs. Emig, work at Naval Hospital; Mrs. Emig, work at Naval Hospital; Mrs. Emig, work at Naval Hospital; Mrs. Eriscoll, scientific instruction; Mrs. Ritter, on the medical temperance committee, and Mrs. Simpson, for the social and red letter day committee, showed progress in the work along these lines, and Mrs. Bradley, literary committee. Mrs. Cress, a former member from out of town.

LINCOLN, W. R. C.

A meeting of the executive committee of Lincoln Corps, No. 6, W. R. C., was held recently at the residence of was held recently at the residence of the District W. C. T. U., to be held this week in St. Paul's Lutheran Church: Mrs. Burton, Miss Haven, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Seibold, Mrs. McKillen, Mrs. Perry, Mrs. Simpson, Miss Neellie Harr, Mrs. Perkins, Mrs. New ton, Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Newman, Miss Lusby, Mrs. Peaslee and Mrs. Copeland. Three new members were received.

CONGRESS OF MOTHERS.

The parliamentary law section of the District branch of the National Congress of Mothers formed Wednesday and will meet every Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock' at the Home Club, under the direction of Mrs. Edith H. Towne, the parliamentarian of the congress.

EMERSON STUDY CLUB.

EMERSON STUDY CLUB.

Mrs. David Walton entertained the members of the Emerson Study Club Wednesday at luncheon at her home on 6th street. The following were present: Mrs. Dumble, mother of the hostess; Mrs. John Cole, honorary president; Mrs. Otto Praeger, Mrs. William Love, Mrs. James Atkinson, Mrs. Lee Runyan, Mrs. William Hastings, Mrs. M. C. Sheilds, Mrs. M. E. Sabin, Mrs. John O'Connell, Mrs. Withers, Mrs. Scott, Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. William Pratt and Mrs. J. E. Payne.

Mrs. John Cole. homorary president. Mrs. John Cole. homorary president. Mrs. James Atkinson. Mrs. William Love. Mrs. James Atkinson. Mrs. Lee Runyan. Mrs. William Hastings. Mrs. M. E. Sabin, Mrs. M. E. Sabin, Mrs. M. E. Sabin, Mrs. M. E. Sabin, Mrs. Scott. Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. William Pratt and Mrs. J. E. Payne.

COLUMBIA HEIGHTS ART CLUB.

The Columbia Heights Art Club met recently at the residence of Mrs. James McKee. The president, Mrs. Edward Hardy, presided. The president appointed z committee, consisting of Mrs. S. J. Croissant, chairman; Mrs. W. B. Turpin and Mrs. M. A. Winter, to take charge of raising the money for the clubhouse fund. Mrs. A. P. Tasker was unanimously elected to membership in the club. Mrs. A. P. Tasker was unanimously elected to membership in the club. Mrs. A. P. Tasker was unanimously elected to membership in the club. Mrs. W. G. Foote conducted a parliamentary drill, the subject Asisg "Debate." Those answering to the Columbia, Mrs. Heisler.

WHEEL CLUB.

The Plorence Crittenton Wheel Club met Thursday, with Mrs. Velma S. Barber, 703 East Capitol street. Sixteen members and one guest were present. Mrs. Ever Wesler, secretary, read the minutes, Mrs. Subject Asisg "Debate." Those answering to the subject Asisg "Debate." Those answering to offi Call on current events were member wand one guest were present. Mrs. Ever Wesler, secretary, read the minutes, Mrs. John Hammond. Topic: "British citizenship. Every penny is to go toward education. Mrs. Logan invited those present to visit the Southern building and inspect to the graph of the cerein of the work of these "Highlanders." The paper of the evening was given by the invited the appreciation of the annual conference of local Crittenton to the annual conference of local Crit

WHREL CLUB.

The Florence Crittenton Wheel Club met Thursday, with Mrs. Velma S. Barber. 703 East Capitol street. Sixteen members and one guest were present. Mrs. Eva Wesler, secretary, read the minutes, and Mrs. Florence Whitney the treasurer's statement. Mrs. Mary W. Story, president, called attention to the annual conference of local Crittenton circles to be held at 218 3d street November 16. Much of the afternoon was devoted to a diversion called a medley trip to Europe. Refreshments were served.

ABRACADABRA CLUB.

The Abracadabra met Wednesday evening with Mrs. A. S. Perham, 905 Westminster stract, with the president, Dr. G. M. Brumbaugh, in the chair. Nearly every member of the club was in attendance and responded to the roll call, "New England Writers." The paper of the syening, by Capt. A. S. Perham, condited of a sketch of the early history of Maine to the close of the seventeenth century. It was discussed by E. A. Perham, Mrs. Barber, the president and the secretaries. Mrs. Appleton Clark read an account of an incident in her early life—a colored wedding. Mrs. A. Y. Casanova read an account of a kangaroc trust that was formed in the early California mining days. The club sang "Way Down on the Suwanee River." After adjournment refreshments were served by

MARY WASHINGTON CHAPTER D. A. R.
Mary Washington Chapter, D. A. R.,
will hold an open meeting Tuesday at 4 p.m. at the Washington Club. Miss Janet Richards will give a short talk on "The Daughters at the Panama Exposition," and Ernest P. Bicknell, national director of the Red Cross, who has recently returned from the European war zone, will make an address.

Miss Dunlap, Miss Cook, Mrs. Ernest Kelly, Mrs. R. N. Wafle, Mrs. Orville Peters, Mrs. H. H. Miller of Washington, Miss Clara A. Moore of Alexandria, Mrs. Edward Clifton Thomas of Silver Spring, Mrs. Karl Wilson of Baltimore and Miss Roberta Allen of Chevy Chase, to meet the twenty-two guests from Sandy Spring.

At the afternoon session Mrs. Milton H. Bancroft and Miss Lydia B. Stabler read papers on "Church Music and Orntorios." Miss Stabler told of church music from the earliest Gregorian chants to the sublime oratorio, illustrating with records and with the help of Mrs. William John Thomas, vocally. Mrs. Bancroft took up the thread at the early seventeenth century and brought the subject up to date by illustrating with records from the best known oratorios. "The Messiah," "standing head and shoulders above them all," and "representing the ripened product of Handel's genius," was her principal topic.

DISTRICT SOCIETY, D. A. R.

Mrs. Frank Foster Greenawalt, state regent, has called a meeting of the chapter regents of the District and the chairmen of committees Thursday at 230 p.m. at the New Willard. Miss Natalie Summer Lincoln, editor of the Di A. R. magazine, will give a tenminute talk about the magazine. Routlife business will be transacted and year books defivered.

Baby Hospital camp, also to request members of the club to advise them of people in Petworth section who need of people in Petworth section who need assistance. The literary committee met in October a the home of Mrs. Phelps. The topic for the month was "Helen Hunt Jackson," and the book "Romona" was reviewed. At the meeting of the educational committee the subject taken up was the "Description of School Management in Foreign Countries Referring Particularly to Main-

CALEDONIAN CLUB.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Caledonian Club gave a Halloween entertainment Friday evening at Eagles' Hall. The attractive program included a piano solo, by Miss Florence Sauber; songs, by Peter Anderson, Miss Rose McLean, H. Alvin Lake, Mrs. W. Seater, Mr. Williamson, Mrs. Woodhead, Mrs. Gibson and R. Smith; violin selections, Miss Alena Campbell; recitation, W. Grant; dance, Miss Mildred Inge. A committee served refreshments and the latter part of the evening was given over to dancing.

L S. SPANISH WAR.

cited. Roll call was responded to with quotations. Visitors of the day were Mrs. Robert Thomason, Miss Alice Reed and Mrs. Rosalin Burrow of Port Royal, Va. The hostess, assisted by Miss Alice Lewis and John R. Le Foe, served refreshments.

ANTHONY LEAGUE.

tion of Mrs. Evangeline C. Dunlop, chairman, is arranging tableaux to be followed by music and Jancing, the entertainment to be given in December.

W. L. R. L. R. T.

The Washington League of Right
Living and Right Thinking will meet Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock in the auditorium of the Woodward & Lothrop building. Mrs. Vance Cheney will give an address on "The Cultivation of Magnetic Personality." Everybody is welcome.

ANTHONY LEAGUE.

The Anthony League met Thursday evening at 2007 Columbia road, when Rev. S. Townsend Weaver, financial secretary of American Union, gave an address on "The Greatest of the Fine Arts" to a large audience. The meeting was in charge of the committee on Bible study, Mmes. Mountford, chairman. At the league's weekly at home, Tuesday, at 3:30, Mrs. Elenore Newton Buckler will begin a course in the art of public speaking. Dr. N. W. Shefterman will deliver an address under the auspices of the league Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, at the Paul Institute, his subject to be "Character Analysis." Thursday evening Mrs. Paul will continue her course on the principles of the common law, and will talk on the legal relations of husband and wife, parent and child, guardian and ward, master and servant. These lectures are open to the public. The committee on drama under the directions were read and refreshments served.

The evening choir of the Church of time this season at the 8 o'clock servtrios, "Declaration of Love," by Raff, "Sumber Song," by Eppinger, and complement of singers, the general personnel being the same as last year with the exception that it is led by a double instead of by a single quartet of soloists. At this evening's service the selections, under the direction of Sydney Lloyd Wright-Murray at the organ, will include the anthem, "The King of Love, My Shepherd Is," by Shelley, incidental soprano and bass solos, by Mrs. Ethel Holtzclaw Gawler and Arthur Chester Gorbach; bass solo, "Abide With Me," by Liddel, Mr. Gorbach; anthem, "He Goes they hold in the history of various nations. The large attendance and enthusiastic responses of roll call with various items of interest bearing upon the particular phases of folklore considered both afternoons, attested the interest of the club in its newly adopted subject.

PETWORTH WOMAN'S CLUB.

The Petworth Woman's Club met in the Petworth Woman's Club met in presided. Two new members were admitted and the name of one candidate was proposed.

The philanthropic committee reported one meeting during the month, when it was decided to make dresses for the Baby Hospital camp, also to request members of the club to advise them more petworth section who need where they was proposed.

Monday Mrs. H. D. Hill, the president, and the choir, and organ postlude, "March," by Schubert. This afternoon the musical numbers by the double quartet will be as follows: Anthem, "Hear Our Cry," by Briggs, incidental contral to solo, Miss Harper; tenor solo, "My Hope Is in the Everlasting," from "The Daughter of Jairus," by Stainer; Hymn-anthem, "O Love That Will Not Let Me Go," by Peace, incidental solo, Mrs. Gawler and the choir, and organ postlude, "March," by Schubert. This afternoon the musical numbers by the double quartet will be as follows: Anthem, "The Daughter of Jairus," by Stainer; Hymn-anthem, "O Love That Will Not Let Me Go," by Peace, incidental solos, Mrs. Gawler and the choir, and tenor solos, wis Burper, Mr. Wrightson and the choir, and organ postlude, "March," by Schubert. This afternoon the musical numbers by the double quartet will be as follows: Anthem, "Lead Thou Me," by Miles, Susanne of persone solos, Mrs. Gawler and the choir, and organ postlude, "March," by Schubert. This afternoon the musical numbers by the double quartet will be as follows: Anthem, "Lead Thou Me," by Miles, Susanne of persone solos, Mrs. Gawler and the choir, and the choir, and the choir, and the most of the musical numbers by the double quartet will be as follows: Anthem, "Lead Thou Me," by Miles, Susanne of persone solos, Mrs. Gawler Before You," by Wooler, incidental

Mme. Susanne Oldberg has begun re-hearsals with her pupils of a musical revue, which is to be presented in so-cial circles here this winter, and pos-sibly in other cities. The revue is under the personal direction of C. W. O'Connor.

The musical portions of the service at old St. Paul's Episcopal Church (Rock Creek parish) today will include the office of "Holy Communion," by Cruickshank, in E flat, and offertory anthem, "O For a Closer Walk With God," by Myles Foster, with incidental solos for soprano and tenor.

Composition of the service Howard Composition of the ward Composition of the composition and also to play with the symphony orchestra. Miss Mary Mullaly, chairman; Mrs. Wilbur, Mrs. Warfield and Miss Jennie Glennan for mthe committee on refreshments and arrangements for the "Toy Symphony." The dean, Harry Wheaton Howard, will visit Baltimore to attend the Maryland chapter meeting and to extend the invitation to the chapter for the social evening here, and Dr. Harned, who will be a guest of the Virginia chapter tomorrow evening, will perform a like office to the Virginians.

Mrs. James Kerr, contralto, a mem-

Beethoven's "Trio, Op. 1, No. 1," and was followed by the cello solo, "An-dante," from "Concerto," by Goltermann; trios, "Declaration of Love." by Raff

At the Church of the Incarnation this morning, the choir, under the direction of Mrs. Henry White, will sing "Com-munion Service," by Tours, in F, and Miss Elsie Small and Miss Gertrude

The Washington Saengerbund, Armand Gumprecht, directing, gave its first musical this season Wednesday evening before an appreciative gathering of members and friends at the hall of the bund, when the following program was rendered: Chorus, "Heimatliebe," by J. Wengert; "Der Kaefer and die Blume," by W. Veit, rendered by the Saengerbund; tenor solos, "Life and Death" and "An Explanation," both by Coleridge Taylor, J. F. M. Bowle; violin solos, "Hungarian Song," by Hubay, Anton Kaspar; soprano solos, "The Violinmaker of Cremona," by Hubay, Anton Kasper; soprano solos, "The Vlolinmaker of Cremona," by Hubay, Anton Kasper; soprano solos, "Can I Believe It?" by Von Fielitz, and "Yesterday and Today," by Charles Gilbert Spross, Mrs. Mary Sherier Bowie; choruses, "Der Kamerer," by Claessen, "Serenade," by Kratzer, and "Loc Kung," by Koemmenich, sung by the Arion Maennerchor of Baltimore, with Carl A. Bockan conducting; duo, "Charity," by Faure, Mr. and Mrs. Bowie; quartet, "The Miller's Woolrs," by Fanning, Miss Mabel Latimer, soprano; Mrs. Edith White, contralto; Howard Cook, tenor, and William Madigan, bass.

Miss Elizabeth Leckie, mezzo so Miss Elizabeth Leckie, mezzo go-prano, was the assisting soloist at a students' recital last evening, when she sang "The Cuckoo," by Liza Leh-mann, and "My Laddie," by Thayer. Compositions by Clementi, Kullak, Rohde, Massenet, Grieg, Moszkowski, Rubinstein, Liszt, Schubert and Bee-thoven were given by the plano stu-

Mrs. James Kerr, contralto, a member of the Rubinstein Club and of the Nevin Quartet, has concluded her service as substitute at the Mount Pleasant Congregational Church and will sing during November at Hamline Methodist Church in place of Mrs. John Humphrey, who is ill.

Mrs. Jessie Rester, contralto soloist of the Eastern Presbyterian Church, is spending the week with relatives in New York city.

Swaltows, by Cowen, and The Little Gray Home in the West."

This evening at the Westminster Memorial Presbyterian Church the Y. M. C. A. quartet, consisting of W. E. Brathawaite, first tenor; A. F. Hoffman, second tenor; M. P. Petterson, first bass, and Benjamin A. Lineback, second bass, will furnish the music for a special service, among the numbers to be presented being Dudley Buck's "Lead Kindley Light." This morning the choir, under direction of Mrs. Frank Byram, will render "Prayer," by Hiller.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Torney Simon will entertain at a students' recital Wednesday evening at the Home Club, the program including both vocal and instrumental numbers.

At All Souls' Unitarian Church the following musical program will be rendered this morning by Charles Trow-bridge Tittmann, bass soloist, and Lewis Corning Atwater, organist, today being observed as All Souls day at this church: "The Heavens Declare the Glory of God," by Beetkoven, and "Litany for All Souls," by Sembert, Mr. Tittmann; prelude, "Lamentation," by Guilmant; offertory, "Andantino," by Lemare, and postiude, "Alla Marcia," from Brahms' "Requiem," Mr. Atwater.

There are a few vacancies in the Cathedral Choir School for boys with good voices. Candidates must be be-tween the ages of nine and eleven years and application should be made in writing before November 10 to Ed-gar Priest, organist and choirmaster.

reading, the second to musical history, the third to technical demonstrations and repertoire. During the musical history, the third to technical demonstrations and repertoire. During the musical history period, sketches from the lives of some of the great composers were tion of Claude Robeson, organist, will include the prelude, "A Sea Song," by MacDowell; anthem, "The Woods and the Every Sweet Smelling Tree," by West; offertory, bass solo, "O Lord, Rebuke to Me Not," by Brown, James S. Hicks; organ postilude, "Marche Solennelle," and the evening service will be in charge of the evening service will be in charge of the evening chorus, and the selections will be: Organ prelude, "The Sandman," by John Carver Alden; anthem, "Turn Thy Face," by Sullivan; contraito and tenor duet, "Children, Pray These Hearts to Cherish," by Spohr, Mrs. Ada Arundel Pillow and Charles D. Church; offertory, quartet, "Let the Wicked Forsake His Way," by Harvey; organ solo, "Meditation," by MacDowell, and postlude, "Fantasia," by Polleri.

Miss Viola Schippert, soprano soloist

Miss Viola Schippert, soprano soloist

Miss Viola Schippert, soprano soloist

Teading, the second to musical history, the third to technical demonstrations in the musical history, the third to technical demonstrations ganist at Union Methodist Church for the musical them outsides from the lives of some of the great composers were the musical sto an Intelligent Understands in technic, after which the pupils gave some demonstrations in technic, and a program of plano numbers.

Miss Ethel Garrett Johnson is present several directed by Dr. William R. Buchanan, and the selections will be: Organ prelude, "Turn Thy Face," by Sullivan; contraito and tenor duet, "Children, Pray These Hearts to Children, Pray These Hearts to Cherish," by Sophr, Mrs. Ada Arundel Freeze, the regular organist, who is Children, Pray These Hearts to Children, Pray These He Miss Viola Schippert, soprano soloist of the Eastern Presbyterian Church, will sing Wednesday at the grand visitation of Naomi Chapter, Eastern Star, when she will be heard in "Spring," by Stern, and "Stolen Fruit," by Godfrey Nutting, Mrs. Harry Cunningham accompanying.

The first of this season's public rehearsals by the Rebew Orchestra took place Monday evening in the lecture room of Keller Memorial Church, under of Mrs. Henry White, will sing "Communion Service," by Tours, in F, and Miss Eisle Small and Miss Gertrude Browne will sing "The Lord Is My Shepherd," by Smart, at the offertory, with Miss Emilie Margaret White at the organ.

and "Rosalle," by De Koven; Mrs. Milton C. White, contralto, who gave "My Dreams," by Tosti, and "Mammy's Song," by Jamison; Paul Hines, tenor, who was heard in "The Spirit Flower," by Campbell Tipton, and "Yesterday and Today," by Spross. These young singers, with Mr. White, bass, gave ansemble "The Merry Miller," from and Today," by Spross. These young singers, with Mr. White, bass, gave ensemble "The Merry Miller." from Rob Roy, making one of the most popular features of the occasion. A string quartet, composed of Messrs. M. F. Maxwell, W. C. Allen, W. Carroll Gilbert and J. A. D. Turner, played the "Quartet for Strings, No. 2," by Mozart, and the orchestra contributed the march, "Civic Pride," by Panella; overture, "Poet and Peasant," by von Suppe; waltz, "Grand Opera Favorites," by Hennenberg; selections from "Sari," by Kalman, "Whispering Flowers" and "Serenade d'Amour," both by Von Blom, and march, "Laurentian," by Laurendeau.

McHenry McChord, organist and choirmaster of the Church of the Epiphany, has been granted a leave of absence by the committee and the series of organ recitals planned by him for the Tuesdays in November have been postponed until his return. Mrs. Charles Brooke Smith, assistant organist, will have charge of the music during Mr. McChord's absence.

Miss Elizabeth Lester of Port Arthur, Chile, who has spent several winters here pursuing her musical studies, sang last Sunday at the Washington Heights Presbyterian Church, making an excellent impression in her interpretation of the ar!a, "O Rest in the Lord," from "Elijah." Miss Lester will shortly return to her home in South America. She has a voice of rare quality and sings with much expression. Miss Elizabeth Lester of Port Arthur

Dr. William Stansfield, organist and choir director of the First Congregational Church, has arranged the following musical program for the morning service today: Organ prelude, "Intermezzo in D flat," Hollins; anthem, "Jubilate in C," Buck; anthem, "What Are These?" Stainer; offertory, quartet, "I Will Give You Rest," West; organ postlude, "Grand-Choeur in D. Descharges." In connection with the golden jubilee celebration of the church there will be given Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock a pageant, entitled "The Vision," by seventy-five young ladies of the congregation, under the direction of Miss Elsie Hand of Philadelphia. The event will be largely musical. Mrs. Melville Dr. William Stansfield, organist and celebration of the church there will be given Saturday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock a pageant, entitled "The Vision," by seventy-five young ladies of the congregation, under the direction of Miss person of Miss Elsie Hand of Philadelphia. The event will be largely musical. Mrs. Melville D. Lindsay of this city and Mrs. Oilver C. Bowne of New Jersey, with forty-five tralto solo; Alvin Lake, bass, "Hybrias,

The Musical History and Sight Reading class of the Virgil Clavier School, which was organized recently had its initial meeting Saturday morning last. The class will meet one Saturday morning of each month. The first period will be devoted to sight reading, the second to musical history, the third to technical demonstrations and repertoire. During the musical

Miss Alwarda Casselman was in charge of the music at St. Alban's Church during October, pending the engagement of the regular choirmaster, Albert W. Harned, who begins his service there today.

The choir of Ingram Congregational Church, under the direction of William H. Starnell, organist, will give the usual monthly musical service this evening, when the following program will be rendered: Anthem, "Fountain of Light," incidental solos, Mrs. Beall and Miss Mack; anthem, "Consider the Lilies," incidental solos, Messrs. Eisel and Toense; trio, "Ti Prego," Miss Benzeler and Messrs, Rule and Toense; trio, "Ti Prego," Miss Benzeler and Messrs, Rule and Toense; trio, "Ti Prego," Miss Benzeler and Messrs, Rule and Toense; trio, "Ti Prego," Miss Benzeler and Mrs. King; anthem, "O For a Closer Walk With God," incidental solo, Mrs. Beall; contralto solo, "O Liest in the Lord," Miss Josephine Mack; offertory duet, "Love Divine," Miss Benzler and Mr. King; anthems, "Consider and Hear Me," incidental solo, Miss Mack; "O for the Wings of a Dove," incidental solo, Miss Benzler; solo, "Teach Me to Pray," Mrs. Oliver; anthem, "Come, Weary Piler, grims," incidental solo, Mr. Toense; anthem, "Sing Alleluia Forth," the choir.

A Large and Imp

The rooms of the Home Club were well filled Friday evening by members and their friends, who were attracted by the announcement of a concert program that proved exceptionally enjoyable. Among the numbers were the plano solos, "Nocturne in B Major," by Chopin; "Etude in F Sharp Major," by Arensky, and "Hungarian Rhapsody, No. 12" by Liszt, played by George D. Thompson; baritone solo, "Prologue," from "I. Pagliacci," by Leoncavailo, and "Der Lenz," by Hildach, Emanuel Simon; bass solo, "The Bell Buoy," and "Down in a Dungeon," by Krensch, Arthur S. Middleton; soprano solo, "Morgen Hymne," by Henschel, and "Street Song," from "La Boheme," Miss Helen Page White. A pleasing variety was given to the entertainment by Miss Bertha Frances Wolfe, who gave two recitations, "Monologue," by Ruth McEnery Stewart, and "A Bear Story," by James Whitcomb Riley. Enery Stewart, and "A Be James Whitcomb Riley.

Washington talent scored a success Friday evening at the Park Road M. P. Church, when an attractive program was presented for the benefit of the building fund. Miss Lenore Gerlach, who arranged the affair, sang the soprano solo, "Gay Butterfly," by Hawley, and others contributing to the pleasure of the occasion were Theodore T. Apple, who gave "Ah, "Tis a Dream," by Hawley, and "When Richelieu the Red Robe Wore," by Murray; Miss Virginia Arner, reader, "Getting Ready for School" and "The Broken Doll"; Miss Roberta Z. Allen, violinist, "Mazur," by Mlynais, and "Song Without Words," by von Goens, and Mrs. J. F. M. Bowle, soprano, "Bird of the Wilderness," by Horsman, and "Yesterday and Today," by Spross.

Mr. Bowle, tenor, "Life and Death" and "An Explanation," both by Coler-Washington talent scored a success

Washington, who visited Mrs. A. D. Mc-Vey, Parkersburg, have returned to Sisterville. Mrs. C. M. Martin, Par-kersburg, has gone to Washington on a visit.

Modern Business.

From Collier's Weekly.

other young ladies, will sing as a chorus of angels. At 3 o'clock the same evening will occur the Bischoff memorial organ recital.

Miss Ruth M Bronson, violinist, has been engaged to direct the orchestra of the Luther Place Memorial Church this winter.

The Musical History and Sight Reading class of the Virgil Clavier School, which was organized recently had its initial meeting Saturday morning last. The class will meet one Saturday morning of each month. The first period will be devoted to sight reading the second to musical history.

The Musical History and Sight Reading class of the Virgil Clavier School, which was organized recently had its initial meeting Saturday morning of each month. The first period will be devoted to sight reading the second to musical history.

The Musical History and Sight Reading class of the Virgil Clavier School, which was organized recently had its initial meeting Saturday morning of each month. The first period will be devoted to sight reading the second to musical history.

The Musical History and Sight Reading class of the Virgil Clavier School, which was organized recently had its initial meeting Saturday morning of each month. The first period will be devoted to sight reading the second to musical history. It is not the cretan," by Elliott, and "Something, M'sa Mesta Volcett, M'sa Beatrice Goodwin sang Schubert's "Serenade," and "When the Children Pray," by Gounod, with violin obligato by Miss Allen, and Mr. and Mrs. Bowle, who were heard also in the duet, "Charity," by Faure. The accompaniments were played by Mrs. Sue Bowle, who were heard also in the duet, "Charity," by Faure. The accompaniments were played by Mrs. Sue Bowle, who were heard also in the duet, "Charity," by Faure. The accompaniments were played by Mrs. Sue Bowle, who were heard also in the duet, "Charity," by Faure. The accompaniments were played by Mrs. Sue Bowle, who were heard also in the good of the Children Pray, by Gounod, with violin the guets and smoke, inhaling the spicture of severy musical as th Church at both services today.

George G. Carman, who has been organist at Union Methodist Church for the past two years, has accepted a position as organist and director of the choir at St. Mark's Lutheran Church, effective today.

Elkins, W. Va.

Elkins, W. Va.

Special Correspondence of The Star.

ELKINS, W. Va., November 6.—A. H. McConville, Washington, spent several days here this week. W. C. Posten and Harry F. Nine motored to Monterey, Va. John T. Davis, son of former

"The House of Quality"

Coats, Suits and Dresses to Sell $19.50 Monday, November 8, at --- $19.50

Values, $25 to $30

Shown for the "First Time" Tomorrow Exclusive, refined and latest moment styles, in all sizes.

SUITS In fine gabardines, poplins and whip-cords, handsomely trimmed with fur and braid; black, navy and the new shades. Special Price, $19.50

DRESSES In crepe meteor, taffeta serge and taffeta combinations. Entire dress fur trimmed, including skirt. All new shades; every size.

Special Price, $19.50 COATS In Hindu lynx, fancy velours, wool plush; made up into the styles of the moment; lined throughout.

Special Price, $19.50

Perfection of Fit Guaranteed-"No Charge" for Alterati

Mayer Bros. & Co.

937-939 F St. N.W.

